Nicolas Verhaeghe    nverhaeghe@fondation-droitcontinental.org

Continental law Foundation was created in 2007 by a partnership between public authorities, legal and business professions.

It promotes the influence of Romano-Germanic law around the world and in particular in cooperation with States and international organizations concerned.

It creates the Index of the legal certainty which evaluates the forms of security to all economic players and formulates recommendations with the International Board on Economic Regulations (IBER).

It accompanies any form of international cooperation for continental law: Summer University, scholarships for students, thesis prizes, publications, translations, seminars, and international meetings.
